Your graduate membership (GMBPsS)

Dear Mr Muhammad Junaid Ghazali GMBPsS

Congratulations! I am pleased to confirm that you now hold graduate member status with The British Psychological Society. That means you're now part of the UK's biggest community of psychologists.

You have also been granted the Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership (GBC). This letter can be shown to course tutors or employers should they require proof of membership and GBC, including enrolments onto a BPS Qualification.

As a society member you will be able to register for our online communities, check out our e-learning courses and access our collection of academic journals.

You'll also be able to manage your personal information via your profile online, speak to our membership team using our online chat function and opt-in to receive our emails. Our emails will keep you up to date with the latest news, trends and topics shaping the future of your profession.

Join a member network

Our member networks exist to help our members further their professional and scientific interests. Joining a network means you will be able to communicate and collaborate with other members, develop your professional knowledge and access training relevant to your career. With over 100 specialist networks for you to choose from, you might not know where to begin. That's why we've created the Find Your Member Network tool to help narrow down your options.

We are committed to ensuring your personal data is secure at all times. For information on how we use your data please view our privacy statement.

Please take some time to familiarise yourself with the Society's Code of Ethics and Conduct and Member Conduct Rules. These documents set out the requirements and codes of conduct that our members are expected to follow.

Need any help?

If you have any questions, or need help with something, you can send an email to membership@bps.org.uk and someone from our membership team will get back to you.

Once again, we would like to congratulate you on achieving your graduate member status.

Yours sincerely,

Sally Munn
