SLS MONTESSORI SCHOOL & COLLEGE

TEACHING STAFF - LETTER OF APPOINTMENT

Branch: PWD Primary J1

To (Name): MS. AMNA NOOR (COMPLETE IN BLOCK LETTERS)

Designation: Class teacher

Subjects: English + S.studies

Classes: 3 No. of Periods: 26

Dear Mr / Miss / Mrs,

With reference to your interview with us, we have pleasure in offering you employment in this institution in the above mentioned position.

You will be subject to the following terms and conditions.

1. Your appointment will commence from the date of your reporting on duty i.e. March 10, 25
2. You will be on probation for a period of four active teaching months (which means summer and winter vacations are not included in your probation period). During your probation period, your services are liable to be terminated without any notice or assigning any reasons thereof. The probation period may also be extended, if the need arises.
3. You shall be paid Rs. 39500/- per month during your probation period with effect from 10.3.25. Your salary is inclusive of provident fund amount Rs.1000/-.
   - Rs.500/- contribution by the employee.
   - Rs.500/- contribution by the employer.
4. While on probation you will be on daily wages. Your probation period will not include holidays / vacations except routine weekends. Regular performance reviews will be conducted to assess your performance and suitability After the active teaching period of four months you shall appear in a Teacher's Familiarization Test and after clearing that your employment shall be regularized as regular staff and will be paid Rs. 40,000/- per month. As a regular staff member you will be entitled to all benefits including teacher child fee concession and annual leave on the assurance that you will be wholly responsible for the assigned classes till the end of the academic year.
5. You will be entitled to summer vacations salary after the completion of one-year active teaching in institution. Please see Teachers Handbook for details.
6. Salary will be paid through the bank prescribed by the school after deduction of income tax and other deductions as applicable. For that you are required to open an account in the required bank as soon as possible before the 25th April, 25
7. It is imperative for all employees to get registered in the Governments' Employees' Old-Age Benefits Institution (EOBI) as per governments' rules and regulation. All the details are to be filled out in the Registration Form (available with the Section Head) and sent to the Head Office along with the appointment letter.
8. If the employee has been contributing to the EOBI as part of the EOBI set up in a previous job, then the proof of that contribution is the responsibility of the employee at the time of induction into the SLS system by mentioning his/her previous Registration Number in the Registration form.
9. Minimum requirement of your employment period is essentially one academic year of the institution, failing which you forego one month's pay plus provident fund. Minimum requirement of one academic year means staff joining in / during an academic year has to complete that academic year. Teachers leaving at the completion of the academic year must serve a six working weeks advance notice in writing in order to become eligible for last month's salary and provident fund.
10. Leaving at the start of the Summer Vacations: Staff joining in / during an academic year may also leave at the start of the summer vacations after serving a six working weeks advance notice in writing to become entitled to last month's salary & provident fund.
11. Teachers who give a six working weeks advance notice in writing but are leaving at any other time of the academic year will forego either six weeks' salary or equivalent Provident Fund.
12. Staff members who do not comply with the above conditions mentioned in points 9, 10 and 11 will not be entitled to any of the above mentioned benefits.
13. You will strictly work for this institution and will not take up any part time job anywhere, either during the institution hours and after, failing which, you will be held guilty of misconduct and breach of trust, that may result in dismissal from service.
14. The Institution can terminate your services with a four weeks' notice without assigning any reason. In case of disciplinary issue, professional incompetence or violation of school rules, the institution, in the best interest of the students, has the right to terminate your services without giving any notice. In case of any dispute, Directors of SLS will be sole judge and their decision will be final.
15. Your average complement of working periods per week shall be 25 – 30.
16. You shall be expected to be punctual, neatly dressed and observe the Institution's discipline in all matters.
17. Whenever your services are required to conduct any extracurricular activities after the teaching hours, you will do so willingly and as a part of your service.
18. You will earn your regular increment after one year, worked out at the start of new session each year depending upon your performance evaluated through staff efficiency index (SEI).

19. You will be entitled to six days annual, casual or medical leave or encashment in lieu after your probation period. As a rule, allowed to take all six leaves at any one time since it adversely affects the education of the students. Leave of six days or more termination of your service without notice. However, in case of extreme need and genuine reason, a teacher may apply for all six same time but she shall be fully responsible to provide a substitute in her/his place for those specific days of leave.

20. The portion of clause 19 relevant to six annual leave altogether shall be applicable if the provided substitute is up to mark and classes continue to run smoothly but where a substitute fails to give required academic performance and output in the best interest of students, a new teacher will be hired in place of teacher on leave and you will stand relieved of your services. In such case clause 9 of this appointment letter shall apply regarding the dues and payment of the teacher.

21. Grant of leave shall depend on the exigencies of work of the institution and shall be at the discretion of the Section Head/Directors.

22. Any leave of absence will be applied for in advance.

23. An absence with a weekend will be considered as 2 days' absence i.e. if a teacher is absent on Saturday or on Monday he/she will be considered absent for 2 days.

24. You agree to subscribe to the institution's provident fund.

25. You have to abide by the laid out system of teaching, monitoring and evaluation and completion of course prescribed to the best of your abilities and entire satisfaction of the Section Head who is the sole authority representing the administration and wholly responsible for execution of guideline / policies issued and amended from time to time in the best interest of the students' performance and evaluation.

26. Appointment as a teacher necessitates a daily homework task of approximately 2 hours.

27. Teachers are not allowed to carry mobile phones in a receptive/on mode within institution's premises except in the staff room or during recess time.

28. You shall be sensitive to individual differences of the students and shall do your best to remove any irritants that may occur in your subject.

29. All faculty is bound to remain in the institution for the hours delegated to each one of them as per their contract with the institution administration, irrespective of the institution examination / low turnout of the students or period.

30. Attendance: You must ensure punctuality in marking your attendance in the staff attendance register and through biometric (Where Biometric machines are available) and entering the arrival and departure time as at the end of the month the accounts department prepares salary slip as per record in the staff attendance register. There will be no change in the record nor should any request be made for any mistake or wrong entry by you in the register. The attendance register and biometric record (where installed) is the final record for calculating salary.

31. No teacher is allowed to give free period to the students due to thin attendance of the class. The teacher must continue as per schedule even if there is a single student present in the class.

32. Home Tuition: No teacher is allowed to compel any student for taking tuitions at home. Complete teaching will be done in the Institution.

33. Physical Punishment / Abuse / Public Humiliation: Adolescent age requires careful handling. All students must be given respect irrespective of their individual differences and capabilities. Their self-esteem must never be hurt. Try to discover your students fully before embarking on their journey of learning. In case of any discipline problem immediately take help from the Head of the branch confidentially. Never discuss your student's strengths / weaknesses publicly. To earn respect, you have to extend full respect yourself. Physical punishment is prohibited in SLS. We believe in one to one counseling and remedial sessions with students with behavioral problems.

34. You agree to perform, observe and conform to such instructions as may from time to time be assigned or communicated to you by the institution in the better interest of the students.

35. You agree to satisfy your students fully and will not give any chance to the students to request for any other alternative teacher to teach the subject assigned to you as per your contract with the institution. You shall ensure 100% satisfaction among your students as regards your subject understanding / comprehending / reinforcing / preparing guide lines for exams etc.

36. You confirm that you have read & understood the terms and conditions of employment and salary set out above and hereby accept them. You agree to be bound by all Institution's rules and regulations as amended from time to time.

Please submit in the institution's office a photocopy of your Computerized National Identity Card, last drawn salary details(Salary Slip), experience certificate, last Academic Certificate and two recent Passport Size Photographs.
